Broadcast Legends

“Old Time Radio Players”

Michael Bennett is a Voice Talent at Stars, The Agency. He is also a Traffic Anchor for Metro Networks. He was the CEO/President of golden Goose Productions and former News Director at KKIZ/KKDV.

Bob Brown has had a life long involvement in entertainment, both in the spot light and behind it. Bob has done photography, theater, events, construction, some broadcasting and local government. And two of the very best daughters a parent can have. A full glass that remains so. Doesn't get any better.

Peter Cleaveland began his broadcasting career in 1961 atKNBC (KNBR) doing traffic reports and background for Doug Pledger and Dick Stewart. He became a reporter and ABC network correspondent at KGO Radio, leading to a 19 year career with KGO and ABC. Pete then served on the national board of the broadcast union, AFTRA. From 1986 until his retirement in 2002 he was on AFTRA's national staff. President of the Broadcast Legends & member of The Bay Area Radio Hall of Fame, class of 2017.

Carolyn Compton is a stage actor performing in bay area theatres. most recently in The Crucible at Costal Repertory. She also performed in Murder on the Nile, Angels in America, & On Golden Pond, also at Costal Rep. She continues to hone her craft at ZA Studios in San Francisco. She owns a floral business specializing in weddings and special events.

Matt Elmore started in the mid 1970's at KCSM in San Mateo freelancing as an announcer and camera-man for TV remotes. He left his native Bay Area to become the Music Director at KCBX-FM in San Luis Obispo. He was the host of "A Morning Cup of Jazz" and became the Program Manager. He also worked as a fill-in disc-jockey at KKAL-AM in Arroyo Grande. He returned to the Bay Area in 1987 to work at KQED-FM. He now hosts morning drive for KQED & KQEI radio, and is the staff announcer for KQED TV.

Tyce Fields is a veteran community theater actor and singer performing throughout the Bay Area. Musical Theater: Memorable roles include George in Kinky Boots and Monsignor O'Hara in Sister Act with Redwood City Community Theater; Levi in Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat and Judas in Godspell with First Pres Players in Burlingame; and most recently Dr. Norquist in Bright Star with TMC Arts in Castro Valley. Live Music: When he's not in a musical Tyce is a singer at BurlPres for both the Sunday Worship Band and the Men's Fellowship Band in Burlingame. Radio: Preparing for the role has taken him back in time when he worked on college radio at Washington & Lee University - WLUR in Lexington, VA - where he first learned to work behind a microphone and do commercial radio spots for local businesses in the Shenandoah Valley. Personal: Tyce studied at both Cal and UC Davis, is a 5th-generation native of the Bay Area, and has been married to his lovely wife Angelica for 26 years. Together they have three children. Tyce founded his insurance agency nearly 20 years ago.

Bruce W. Jenett has been a lawyer focused on emerging life sciences companies in the Bay Area for over 40 years, but in his spare time, as a member of the Family Club, he has played over 120 roles in the 22 years he has been a member of the Family, ranging from Frank Sinatra to a talking dog to Dolly Parton, and he has also had the wonderful pleasure of participating in live radio broadcast recreations with the wonderful team at Broadcast Legends. In Bruce's view, very few things in life are more satisfying than doing a voice character just right, live into a real microphone, no video, no online presence, just letting the audience create the background and the sets and everything else that the voices bring to life in the theater of the mind.

Hoyt Smith. has been the Morning announcer on KDFC since 1999. Bay Area listeners also know him from his work on K101, KNBR, KYUU, KLOK, and smooth jazz KKSF. He has tried to retire twice, but is back on the air. Hoyt was inducted into the Bay Area Radio Hall of Fame in 2016

Sam Van Zandt on the air at San Francisco's KCBS-FM in 1975. A San Jose native, Sam has worked at several local stations, including K-101, KFRC and KBAY. He currently partners with Lissa Kreisler on 94.5 KBAY's morning show for 12 years.
